

Agritech Startups Recognized for Excellence at FICCI's 6th Agri Startup Awards 2024

Minister of State for Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, Shri Bhagirath Choudhary, while addressing the '6th edition of FICCI Agri Startup Summit & Awards' on 5th August 2024 stated that agriculture plays a vital role in India's economy, contributing to inclusive growth, rural incomes & food security. He emphasized that the Centre is committed to ensuring the agriculture sector remains viable, innovative and sustainable through its schemes and policies.

The Minister commended FICCI for organizing the Agri Startup Awards, noting that this platform not only recognizes the remarkable achievements of agri startups but also provides crucial support and incentives, fostering innovation and growth. He added that Central government initiatives like the Startup India program and the Agri-Sure Fund are designed to offer monetary and technical support to agritech startups.

Chairman of the FICCI Task Force on Agri Startups and Technology, Shri Hemendra Mathur, mentioned that through these awards, over 150 agri startups have been supported so far.

During the event, startups were honoured with awards in various categories, including Best Agtech in Sustainable Agriculture, Best Women Agtech Entrepreneurs, Most Innovative Agtech Startup and more.